

A scatter plot representing the distribution of stars in the sky, likely based on magnitude. The plot uses black dots of varying sizes to represent individual stars. A legend in the bottom right corner indicates that the size of the dots corresponds to the star's magnitude, with a label " < 6.50 mag". The background is white, and the stars are distributed across the entire field of view.

< 6.50 mag