

A scatter plot showing the distribution of stars in the sky. The stars are represented by black dots of varying sizes, indicating their brightness. A horizontal dotted line at the bottom right is labeled " < 6.50 mag". Four small crosshair icons are positioned at the top, bottom, left, and right edges of the plot area.

< 6.50 mag