

A scatter plot showing the distribution of stars in the sky. The plot uses black dots of varying sizes to represent stars of different brightness levels. A legend in the bottom right corner indicates that the size of the dots corresponds to the star's magnitude, with the text " < 6.50 mag". The background is white, and the stars are scattered across the field, with a higher density in certain regions.

< 6.50 mag